STAT

Jerry:

This note has more to do with history than current events, but before much more time elapses I want to thank you for your hospitality during the visit of my wife and I to the Grand Ole Opry. It was very kind of you to show us around and we certainly did enjoy the foot-stomping show of Skeeter Davis and Little Jimmy Dickens. It was certainly a most enjoyable visit and memorable experience. Thanks for taking the time to make it so.

Please also thank  for all her help and assistance.

You have our best wishes for continued good luck.

Sincerely,

John N. McMahon
